

SECOND CHANCE HOME

CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

For Sponsor, Donors and Visitors

Second Chance Home as a rehabilitation and reformation center for Children In Conflict with the Law ensures to provide the basic needs and holistic development opportunities under its care. It is highly committed its operation under a child-friendly environment in consideration that every decision, programs and services implemented are geared towards the best interest and welfare of the client. The center also gives recognition of private individuals/groups having the compassion to contribute for the attainment of its goal of providing all the necessary needs of Children In Conflict with the Law for the reformation of their spiritual and moral values. Having the Second Chance Home is an institution/facility with protective environment managed and operated with minimal funds encumbered the provision of special needs of the minor clientele and as a recourse outside intervention/assistance has to be catered, regulated and monitored that the best interest and welfare of the minor clients are always protected at all times.

Before the visit at the facility, most particularly when offering programs and services as well as donations (cash and in kind) the entity or any individual as Sponsor, Donor and Visitor must adhere on the following policies:

1. Be clear with the purpose and intent of visit. A letter request addressed to the Local Chief Executive through the CSWD Officer and Center Manager stating therein the purpose of visit, time and date, number of individuals who will visit and the activity/activities they had plan to undertake while at the center and this letter request must be duly approved by the Local Chief Executive or its duly appointed representative.
2. Advance information must be given to Second Chance Home of any equipment, materials and resources that they are going to bring during the visit. Any donor bringing perishable goods are responsible in ensuring that the goods are still fit for human consumption. They are held legally accountable for any incidence of food poisoning or medical emergencies due to expired/spoiled goods.
3. Visitors must guarantee that they are all in good health and no one among them is suffering from any communicable diseases for the safety and protection of Second Chance Home residents.
4. Briefing orientation must be conducted for them to be familiarized with the Child protection Policy.

During the visitation at Second Chance Home, every one of the guests shall observe proper attitude and behavior such as:

1. Avoid spending time alone with children away from others.
2. Avoid giving special treatment to a child or group of children better or worse than others.
3. Do not decline to believe what a child says, nor give insinuation that the child is not telling the truth.
4. Do not insinuate or influence children to say or do things which are against their will.
5. Be considerate to what a child says including questions/queries and requests.
6. Do not offend any child or let them feel stupid and embarrassed.
7. Always dress appropriately.
8. Staff/Personnel and others shall not:
 - a. Intentionally or deliberately beat or otherwise physically assault or physically abuse minor Former Rebels.
 - b. Impose any emotional and physical punishment to Children In Conflict with the Law.
 - c. Create special relationship with Children In Conflict with the Law which could in any way be deemed exploitative or abusive that could exclude others.
 - d. Behave in any way that may be abusive or may engage Children In Conflict with the Law at risk of abuse.

Confidentiality of the records at Second Chance Home and even the identity of the Children In Conflict with the Law must be observed at all times. In the event minor discloses all experiences information shall always be kept confidential. Picture taking and video recording are strictly prohibited.

Adherence to the SCH rules and policies must be done at all times.

I HEREBY agree to conform and abide the stipulated General Policies and CHILD PROTECTION POLICY as stated above.

Complete Printed Name and Signature
(Representative)

Office/Agency Represented

Date